Air pollution is a cause of ill-health in human beings. In a lot of countries there are laws limiting the amount of smoke which factories can produce. Although there isn't enough information on the effects of smoke in the atmosphere, doctors have proved that air pollution causes lung diseases.

The gases from the exhausts of cars have also increased air pollution in most cities. The lead in petrol produces a poisonous gas which often collects in busy streets surrounded by high buildings. Children who live in areas where there is a lot of lead in the atmosphere can't think as quickly as other children and are clumsy when they use their hands.

There are other long-term effects of pollution. If the gases in the atmosphere continue to increase, the earth's climate may become warmer. A lot of the ice near the Poles may melt and may cause serious floods.

 Complete the summary by writing the correct word in each blank (write one word only.)

Air _____ (52) can make people _____ (53). Consequently, some countries pass _____ (54) to control the quantity of _____ (55) in the air. Air pollution causes particular damage to the body by harming the _____ (56). _____ (57) should not be used in petrol because it is bad for children's _____ (58) and makes them clumsy in using their hands. Poisonous gas from _____ (59) collects in those parts of cities where there are tall buildings. Pollution can also have an influence on the earth's _____ (60). The ice may melt near the North and South Poles, resulting in very bad _____ (61).

F) Read the following passage and choose the best answer: (2,5ms)

Every year students in many countries learn English. Some of these students are young children. Others are teenagers. Many are adults. Some learn at school, others study by themselves. A few learn English just by hearing the language in films, on television, in the office or among their friends. But not many are lucky enough to do that. Most people must work hard to learn another language.

Many boys and girls learn English at school because it is one of their subjects. They study their own language, and mathematics... and English. In England, America or Australia, many boys and girls study their own language, which is English and mathematics... and another language, perhaps French or German or Spanish.

Many adults learn English, because it is useful for their work. Teenagers often learn English for their higher studies, because some of their books are in English at the college or university. Other people learn English because they want to read newspapers or magazines in English.

62) According to the writer

- a) only adults learn English.
- b) no children like to learn English.
- c) English is useful only for teenagers.
- d) English is popular in most of the world.

63) Most people learn English by

- a) watching videos only.
- b) hearing the language in the office.
- c) talking with foreigners.
- d) working hard on their lessons.

64) Many boys and girls learn English because

- a) English can give them a job.
- b) it is included in their study courses.
- c) they are forced to learn it.
- d) they have to study their own language.

65) In America or Australia many school children study

- a) English as a foreign language.
- b) English and mathematics only.
- c) such foreign languages as French, German and Spanish.
- d) their own language and no foreign language.

66) Many adults learn English because

- a) English is spoken in their office.
- b) they want to go abroad.
- c) most of their books are in English.
- d) it helps them in their work.
